Whether you are part of a small group or an individual, you can make Christmas special for those who have recently experienced trauma from domestic abuse. For some, this could be a mother's first holiday without her children. For others, this is the first Christmas on their own and struggling to make ends meet.

YOUR SUPPORT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

The generosity of those who stepped in and provided gifts for myself and my daughter last year was truly touching. The prayers and love meant so much as that was our first peaceful Christmas on our own.

Words cannot express my gratitude. Though the Christmas season was filled with much loss, it was so encouraging to receive the love and support from those who provided Christmas for us. Thank you!
